

Theorem 133 (Gauss' Flux Theorem) For a smooth and bounded region R , which contains matter of total mass M , then

$$\iint_{\partial R} \mathbf{f} \cdot d\mathbf{S} = -4\pi GM.$$

This result is in fact equivalent to Poisson's equation.